

Society.

The event of the week was the musicale given at the Fifth East hotel on Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Royle and Miss Martha Royle King. The main hall and corridors of the hotel were beautifully decorated with flowers and palms. The guests were seated facing the broad staircase where the singers stood.

It was the first appearance of Mrs. King since her return from New York, and her many friends were greatly pleased with her soprano voice.

The variety of her selections was most pleasing, and her "Plantation Lullaby" was a charming thing. Miss Cohn's beautiful contralto was never heard to better advantage. Mr. Woodmansee played with his accustomed skill. The programme:

"The Swallows"—Cowen.

"Sweet Awakening"—Meyer-Helmund.

"These Are They Which Came," (from Oratorio of "The Holy City")—Gaul.

"Restless River"—German.

"The Train to Poppyland"—Gottschalk.

"Plantation Lullaby"—Clustam.

Piano—

"Romance"—Jensen.

"Suite" (b minor)—D'Albert.

Duet—

"Spring Song"—Lassen.

"Wanderer's Night Song"—Rubinstein.

"I Attempt From Love's Sickness to Fly" (Old English Song, 1685)—Purcell.

"A May Morning"—Denza.

A great surprise was the marriage of Miss Beatrice Sells and Mr. James Deitrick of Richmond, Va., at the home of the bride's mother on Wednesday morning, Rev. J. Brainard Thrall officiating. Mrs. Deitrick (nee Sells) became engaged to Mr. Deitrick while she was studying in Europe, but so closely has the secret been kept that not even her most intimate friends had the least suspicion of her coming marriage. The wedding was very quiet, only the immediate family and a few intimate friends witnessing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Deitrick have gone to Old Point Comfort and later will make their home in Richmond, Va.

Golf.

Mr. E. F. Hall, the champion of the Buffalo club, was defeated by Mr. Hale and Mr. Wicks on the local links on Monday. Mr. Hall found the local links abounding in hazards, and more difficult than any he had ever played on.

Some excellent work has been done in the removal of stones from the course, particularly at the bunker guarding the fourth hole. The squaring of the teeing grounds with the line of drive is also a step in the right direction. Prof. Leonard is to be congratulated on having the course in better condition than ever before.

***

The greens committee is contemplating the erection of a canopy of some sort at the fifth green, where the irate player who has successfully negotiated the garden, the long bunker and the canal, can cool off while addressing some remarks to the vicious little blind bunker which has just ruined his (or her) score.

The Ogden Golf club now has a membership of forty, and active steps are being taken to secure a club-house before the season of 1903.

Hope Diamond to be Sold.

If the gossip of Maiden Lane has foundation in fact, Senator W. A. Clark of Montana has bought, or is about to buy, the famous blue diamond so long an heirloom in the Hope family.

The gem is valued at $500,000.

The Hope diamond weighs 44 3/8 carats, is cushion shaped, and is a perfect blue white stone. It first appeared in London in 1830, and was brought by Henry Thomas Hope, an ancestor of the present Lord Hope, former husband of May Yohe.

The diamond was entailed in the Hope family until last year, when the High Court of Chancery released the entail. Lord Hope sold the gem to Joseph Frankels' Sons of New York City. They immediately placed its selling price at half a million dollars.

D. J. Frankel, of the firm, admitted yesterday that the stone would be definitely sold in a few days, but he would not say to whom.—New York Telegraph.
